

Hal H. Haenel Yachtsman of the Year

Perpetual Trophy

Awarded to the California Yacht Club member for excellence in the sport of sailing marked by personal achievement in national and international competition. This trophy honors Hal's achievements in the Star Class for winning an Olympic Silver Medal in 1988 and an Olympic Gold Medal in 1992.

Hal was later the winning crew of the Star World Championship in 1995 and the U.S. representative in the Star Class in the 1996 Olympic Games. Hal again returned to the Olympics as Team Leader of the 2000 U.S. Olympic Sailing Team. He also has served as a Vice President of U.S. Sailing.
